

Department of Housing and Community Development
Training and Certification Office
501 North Second Street
Richmond, Virginia 23219
Telephone: 804/371-7140 Fax: 804/371-7092

2003 Code Change Training—Phase IV

Tentative Dates for Make-Up Sessions

TRAINING OVERVIEW

ONE-DAY SEMINAR All Day Session: 8:00—3:30

I—Plumbing, Mechanical, Fuel Gas, Electrical

Mandatory for: Electrical, Mechanical, Plumbing and Combination—One and Two Family Dwelling Inspectors
Electrical, Mechanical, Plumbing and Combination—General Inspectors
Electrical, Mechanical, Plumbing Plans Examiners

II—Building, Residential and Energy Conservation

Mandatory for: Commercial and Residential Building & Combination Inspectors, Building and Fire Plan Examiners, Fire Inspectors.
This training is also mandatory for Elevator Inspectors employed by local government and representatives from Elevator companies contracted by local government. Elevator inspectors should only attend the building portion (IBC).

III - Uniform Statewide Building Code, Statewide Fire Prevention and Technical Amendments

Mandatory for: All "DHCD" certificate holders

Notes:

1. There will be no pre-registration. Register on site for the entire session
2. There is no cost for the seminars; lunch is on your own (Instructor will determine lunch time frame)
3. It is recommended you bring the appropriate 2003 I-Code's
4. Please note: Watch the DHCD, VBCOA, VPMIA and VFPA web-sites for training sites for the remainder of 2005 .

TRAINING DATES AND LOCATIONS

I

January 10th—Roanoke Area
January 11th—Danville Area
January 17th—Newport News Area
February 2nd—Fredericksburg Area
February 3rd—Richmond Area

II

January 31st—Hampton Area
February 13th—Richmond Area
February 14th—Middletown Area
March 29th—Roanoke Area

III

December 13th—Tidewater Area
December 14th—Emporia Area
January 17th— Loudoun Area
January 18th—Richmond Area

Phase V-2006

Upcoming Classes (Dates to be announced)

Classes on: Energy Code , Existing Buildings, Accessibility for Multi-Family buildings, Technical Review Board Process, Property maintenance Code/Rental Inspection Program, and International Residential Code Plan Review